PASTOR ERIK THONE
Associate Pastor

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also”
(Matt. 6:21)

Yuck. I just spent the last two weeks preaching about money as the Lectionary (which assigns our readings) designated the Parable of the Dishonest Manager (Luke 16:1-13) and the Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31) as our texts. As I noted, pastors don’t like preaching about money any more than congregations like hearing about it (It’s personal, sensitive, and uncomfortable for all). So why did Jesus talk about it so much (Because he really does talk about it a lot!)? I imagine it is, simply, because we think about it a lot. It affects our life multiple times on a daily basis and it’s a significant factor in many of the larger life-decisions we make. It’s important to our lives so it’s important to Jesus.

In general, Jesus’ teachings on money fall into two categories: 1) Encouragement to use wealth to care for those in need, and 2) Warnings against wealth as an obstacle to spiritual well-being. I think the first is how Jesus addresses the concern of the second. Generous attention to others protects us from the self-centeredness that frequently comes between us and God.

As I reflected, I found myself increasingly convicted about this “attention” part. I’m an auto-pay guy. I set-up automatic giving and bill-pay every opportunity I get (including my church offering). It’s convenient, it keeps me from late-fees, and it’s good for the church. It also requires no attention on my part; I think there’s a loss there. I’m not going to cancel my automatic giving, but I am going to try and pay closer attention because I think that the gift of giving comes to us through attention and reflection. The spiritual growth and health that Jesus offers in his teachings on money are dependent on prayerful consideration alongside the act of giving. Giving can change us, but only if we think about how and why we’re giving.

So that’s my invitation (or rather Jesus’ invitation) to you. Budgeting often focuses on how we spend money, but I invite you to also consider why you spend money the way you do and ask yourself whether your budget reflects your values. One way or another, money, like time, transforms us through our constant use of it. It reinforces our values or it changes them. It draws us towards others or it turns us inward. It brings us closer to God or it becomes an obstacle between us and God. This can be a conscious choice, but, more often, I think it happens through unconscious habit. So pay attention and let your money bring you closer to God and your neighbors.

Our kitchen runs smoothly because of the volunteers we have. I really appreciate each one of my volunteers and thank you for helping. This year we could use some help picking up the dining hall Wednesday evening. We also need meal servers and substitutes when regular helpers are gone.

If you can help, call Linda Jensen at (308) 760-0871 or call the office and leave your name and phone number.

Thanks, Linda

Tom Pfeifle Memorial 2022 5k Run/Walk

On behalf of the Tom Pfeifle Memorial Inc, we would like to express our deep gratitude for allowing us the use of the church for so many occasions; our monthly meetings, a place to prepare tote bags and shirts for the 5k event, the use of the kitchen to cut fruit, and storage of totes and coolers before the event. We are also deeply grateful for the congregation's support and attendance as we ran or walked on the trails named after Tom and remembered this outstanding young man. Please enjoy Raider Park whenever you seek a lovely place to walk or run.

Thank you, thank you,
Diane & Bill Tschetter & board

If you like to work with your hands and have a few hours to spare there are several small church property projects that could use your skills:

- Several kitchen cabinet doors need to have their latches replaced.
- The wooden outdoor garden shed needs to be cleaned and painted.
- Adding a sink base cabinet, countertop and sink to the nursery.
- Shelf repair or replacement in the downstairs workshop.

There is always a list of smaller jobs that can be done. If you'd like to help please call Joel Petersen 605-391-4539.

PIECEMAKERS FALL QUILT SALE

Microwave cozies, potato bags, quilts, runners, and pillows will be on display and available to purchase on October 15th, 16th, and 19th in the sanctuary and Koinonia Room. If you have any special requests—let a Piecemaker know and it will be considered. If you would like to be involved with Piecemakers but don't want to meet at church, quilt top kits are available to sew at home.

SOUNDBOARD OPERATOR NEEDED

South Canyon Lutheran Church is looking for a sound board operator for worship and special services. This is a paid position. Please contact the church office if you are interested.

Council Visibility

OUR 2022-2023 COUNCIL

Greg Eiesland—President	Diane Tschetter—Vice President
Byron Mutschleknaus—Budget & Finance	Joel Petersen—Property & Grounds
Janet Carter—Secretary	Tanna Phares—Youth Representative
Caitlyn Nichols—Health and Wellness	PJ Haar—Treasurer
Ken Walker—At Large	Matt Wilson—At Large

JOEL PETERSEN

(Property and Grounds)

I have been a member of SCLC since 2004 and in my second term on church council. Janet and I have been married for 41 years and have three adult children. I have worked for the US Geological Survey for 35+ years monitoring water resources. In our spare time Janet and I enjoy family, travelling, gardening (Janet tends the flowers, I try to grow the vegetables), home projects, and hiking. I am thankful for my family and SCLC.

GREG EIESLAND

(President)

I was raised on a farm in eastern South Dakota. I went to law school and became a civil justice trial lawyer, primarily in South Dakota, for several decades. My wife and I have made our home in the Black Hills since leaving school. I'm a baseball nut, coaching youth baseball for many years. I now confine myself to umpiring (silently from the stands.) I enjoy the four seasons outside in the Black Hills. We also enjoy traveling, connecting with old friends, meeting new people and experiencing new cultures. We have been members of SCLC since moving to Rapid City.

PJ HAAR

(Treasurer)

I've been a member of SCLC since March 2002 when I retired and moved to Rapid City from Washington DC. I retired from the federal government in Feb. 2002 after 35 years of service (Forest Service (25) and Indian Health Service (10)). Since being retired, I've volunteered in various areas at SCLC, YMCA, AARP Foundation doing taxes free for the community, SD SHIINE – helping people review their Part D drug Insurance and helping them enroll in new plans, and Thrivent Habitat build coordinator for the construction of a new home. My best retirement time has been playing the role of grandma.

MATT WILSON

(At Large)

I was born and raised in Rapid City, graduating from Stevens High School in 2014. I went on to SDSU for my undergraduate degree, before completing my physical therapy training at University of Iowa. I currently work at Black Hills Orthopedic and Spine Center as a physical therapist. I was grateful for the opportunity to move home and join the church community I was raised in. I hope to give back to SCLC and the community that has given me so much.

Council Minutes - August 16, 2022

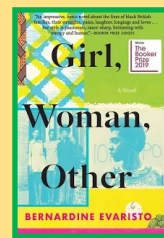

Here are highlights from the August meeting:

- July Minutes: Approved
- Financials: Income for July was about $37k. Expenditures were about $67k, with a negative difference of about $29K. In contrast, the difference in July 2021 was a negative 5k. Will be mindful of this deficit going forward, June - September are traditionally lower giving months.
- Council is planning a retreat this fall.
- Staff - council is meeting with staff in September for reviews and to work on developing quality job descriptions.
- Outdoor Space task force is meeting in August to compile ideas, wants, needs and feasibility of the space.
- Council meeting time was moved to the second Monday of the month at 6pm.

Bell Choir begins this month on the 11th. We rehearse Tuesdays in the sanctuary balcony at 6:30 p.m. We welcome new ringers and still could use a couple of men to ring the heavier bells.

Joyful Noise is up and running. If you are interested in singing or playing with this group, please let me know. We could use another guitarist as well as singers who are comfortable singing in a small group.

Kid's Choir has begun, but it is not too late to join! We rehearse Fridays at 3:30 p.m. and are already learning Christmas songs! We always have lots of fun, whether it is with our warm-ups, our silly songs, or our delicious treats at the end of rehearsal. The ages for our current Kid's Choir range from 4 to 14. All students with a love of singing are welcome to join us!

Wednesday Worship Band has begun and I am always grateful and amazed at the dedication of this intergenerational group. If you play an instrument or sing and are interested in joining us, just show up on a Wednesday at 5:40 pm (that gives me about 5 minutes to pull music for you) and join us in leading the music for worship.

Sanctuary Choir continues to sing in worship on the first, third and fifth Sundays of the month. We are also beginning to read through music for Christmas. I am excited about our Christmas Cantata on Dec. 18th. We will be joined by the Kid's Choir and a certain, almost 21-year-old tenor who is studying at USD, for the solo for Mary Did You Know. ;-)

All of these ensembles are examples of stewardship – ways of using our gifts to celebrate our love of music, sharing our gifts with others all the while giving glory to God. In addition to that, it is a wonderful way to share in fellowship with others. If you have a gift and would like to share that in worship, please let me know.
